MAYOR DREW ANNOUNCES GROUND-BREAKING CEREMONY FOR NEW APARTMENT DEVELOPMENT AT 138 COLLEGE STREET

September 10, 2015

Middletown, CT, – Mayor Daniel T. Drew is pleased to announce a Ground-Breaking Ceremony for a new apartment development to be located at 138 College Street in Middletown.

Massachusetts-based Hajjar Management Co, Inc. will hold ground-breaking ceremonies for their six-story apartment building located at 138 College Street. The ceremonies will take place on September 10, 2015, at 12:00 p.m. The building will provide valuable downtown housing and modern retail space to support and complement Middletown’s exciting downtown business district.

Charles Hajjar, President of Hajjar Management, extends his thanks to Larry McHugh and the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce for their support in making this development a reality. Also instrumental in bringing this vision to life are Middletown Mayor Dan Drew, along with his staff including Joseph Samolis, Brig Smith and Michiel Wackers. Hajjar Management also expresses special thanks to the Middletown Common Council for their support in bringing this project to fruition. This development is also made possible by the financing provided by another important Middletown downtown business and neighbor, Citizens Bank.

Mayor Drew expressed support for this project, stating “This development will enhance an already vibrant downtown district, allowing more people to live close to the areas where they work, shop, and dine.”

The ground-breaking ceremony is open to the public.
